-  Virginia lawmakers this week killed three anti-transgender bills.
-  The Virginia Senate Health and Education Committee on Thursday tabled Senate Bill 1073, which would have banned trans athletes from school sports teams that correspond to their gender identity. The same committee on Thursday tabled a similar measure, Senate Bill 1074, which would have made it illegal for any individual to provide gender transition procedures, defined in the bill, for any individual.
-  The committee on Thursday also tabled Senate Bill 1074, which would have made it illegal for any individual to provide gender transition procedures, defined in the bill, for any individual.
